Cincinnati Man Accused of Murdering Wife in Chicago Gives Testimony

CALLED UP HIS WIFE

At Home of Friend and Asked Her to Come to Hotel Where She Was Afterwards Found Murdered—Was Suspicious.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM) Chicago, Feb. 27.—With a wealth of detail concerning conversations with his wife in the days just before he killed her in a Chicago hotel last fall, but not a word directly touching the manner of her death, William Cheney Ellis today held the attention of court and listeners in his trial for wife-murder.

He steadfastly declared that his wife had confessed her love for another man and that he had pleaded with her to return to their Cincinnati home where their two little children awaited them and where he was respected and prosperous business man.

"That night we went to a theatre," he said. "When we returned I tried to put my arms around her but she repulsed me. I asked her—I implored her to go home with me to our two children. She said she could not help it and that she could not see how she could treat me that way because I had always been good to her."

Pale and apparently on the verge of collapse, Ellis continued: "I don't remember anything further. My home had been broken up. I simply seemed to give away. The first thing I knew I found myself in bed with my arms around Mrs. Ellis. I had on her kimono and—and—saw my darling wife was dead."

"I got the knife and cut my throat and wrist. Then I called Mrs. Eberle, and asked her if she would not come down right away. I told her something terrible had happened. She said, 'Don't let it happen until I can come down.' It is too late, we're dying," I said. After that I cut my throat and wrists again. Then the officers came."

"Mrs. Ellis was the highest minded woman I ever knew," said Ellis. "She had no wrong thoughts. She simply was infatuated with that man, Fred Caldwell of Brantford, Ont. She was never the same after we met him that summer. It was while we were at dinner here the night I arrived in Chicago that she confessed her love for him. I asked her to go back to Cincinnati and she refused. 'I love Caldwell and he loves me,' she said. 'We have been corresponding and if you don't let me see him now I will run away and see him another time.'"

"I told Mrs. Ellis that she should not stay here unless she had her sister with her. She said her sister would laugh at her or else think that something was wrong. She said that if she found out she really loved Caldwell she would come and tell me, and we would get a divorce. But all the time she was a good woman."

"This was the end of Ellis' direct testimony."

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM) Chicago, Feb. 27.—William Cheney Ellis, accused of murdering his wife, Mrs. Eleanor Hoea Ellis, in a Chicago hotel last fall today before Judge Pett resumed his narrative of the incidents which preceded the crime.

In the first questions asked Ellis' attention was directed to his statement that discord in his marital life came through meeting Fred Caldwell, a merchant of Brantford, Ont., whom Ellis and his wife were taking a vacation in the Canadian town and that he came to Chicago to watch his wife after he had found what he believed to be a copy of a telegram his wife sent to Caldwell, saying that she would be in Chicago for a week.

"When I reached Chicago," said Ellis, "I called on my wife at the home of Morris Eberle in River Forest, where she was staying. She said: 'Is this you Will, or are you fooling me? You are in Cincinnati and not in Chicago, are you?' I told her I was here and asked her to come to the hotel."

"When she met me at the hotel," continued Ellis, "she acted queer and I asked her, 'Don't you love me any more?' She said she did not know."

"Then she asked me, 'What in the world are you doing in Chicago?' I told her that our ninth wedding anniversary was next Wednesday and that I would go from coast to coast to be with her then."

He then told of learning that his wife was down town alone the afternoon before his arrival and that he was disturbed and tried to "study out some plan."

Ellis said that he was surprised that his wife did not ask about their children nor refer to a telegram he had sent to her.

Lieutenant Becker, Who Gets a New Trial on Charge of Plotting Murder of Gambler Rosenthal

The highest court of New York State, the Court of Appeals, has granted Police Lieutenant Charles Becker, sentenced to death for the murder of Herman Rosenthal, the New York gambler, a new trial. At the same time, the four gunmen, who actually did the killing, have been denied new trials, and they must die in the electric chair at Sing Sing, unless they find a lawyer to carry their case into the federal courts.

Rosenthal was shot to death July

16, 1912, in front of the Hotel Metropole on Forty-third street. A year and a half ago Becker was convicted and sentenced to death. The case has dragged along since then. At the same rate of speed, three years may elapse before another conviction and confirmation by the Court of Appeals may be obtained.

In the mean time, Becker must be taken from the death house in Sing Sing to the Tombs prison in New York City. He and his friends believe another conviction will not be obtained.

Supreme Court Decision Makes Certain, Legality of Subway Bond Issue

A decision was handed down Tuesday by the Supreme Court of Ohio that interests municipalities throughout the state, who contemplate the issuance of bonds and will apply directly to Newark's proposed issue of $240,000 subway bonds, which were authorized by ordinance of council last December in accordance with the vote of Nov. 4, 1913.

Under the decision there must be levy to create from the sinking fund an amount equal to take care of any indebtedness created by bonds, sufficient to cover this indebtedness up to the time of maturity.

In other words, there will be a general sinking fund, divided into a number of other funds, each to take care of some specific indebtedness, and thus conform to the constitution.

By a special enabling act of the legislature, Ohio municipalities may by council pass legislation which will correct any defect in the authorizing ordinance so as to conform to the new order of things, and this subsequent clause will be enacted by the Newark council in regard to the ordinance authorizing the subway bond issue.

These bonds are to be sold after May 1, 1914.

MAY KNOW HER FATE IN SHORT TIME

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM) Little Valley, N. Y., Feb. 27.—Mrs. Cynthia Buffum, on trial for the murder of her husband, Willis Buffum, may know her fate tonight. Her attorney, Patrick S. Collins, began his summing up when court opened today.

It was generally conceded that the jury's verdict would be largely determined by its acceptance or rejection of the "confession" made by Mrs. Buffum at a Buffalo hotel December 30. Attorney Collins in his closing address held that the confession was wrung from a woman hounded by private detectives and made at a time when her mind was disorganized by drink. He argued that there was no actual or circumstantial proof that the woman had planned the death of her husband. Pointing out that Mrs. Buffum had been a hard working, faithful farm wife for 23 years, he showed in contrast that Willis Buffum had repeatedly over a term of years abused his wife and frequently threatened to kill himself and his whole family. During Buffum's last illness and the spring before all the Buffums, wife and children, had been sick, he said. He charged the poisoning to the husband.

GIRLS ENDEAVORING TO INDUCE PEOPLE TO REMOVE 'PHONES

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM) Canton, O., Feb. 27.—The striking girl operators of the Stark County Telephone company continued their fight today, by canvassing business offices and residences and endeavoring to induce people to remove their 'phones. The girls claim that over a hundred subscribers have agreed to cancel their contracts unless the company grants the demands of the strikers.

Saturday will be tax day here, when the girls will solicit money from evry one on the streets, in order to get funds to carry on the strike.

W. E. Fider, national organizer of the linemen's union, this morning held a conference with Manager Graham of the telephone company and it is said that if the meeting is not satisfactory the linemen may strike in sympathy with the operators.

ELEVEN KILLED WHEN PRISONERS DASH FOR LIBERTY

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM) Guayaquil, Ecuador, Feb. 27.—Eleven were killed and thirteen wounded in a sharp fight today between the government troops and prisoners attempting to escape from the penitentiary.

The convicts killed their wardens and dashed for the gates cheering for Colonel Carlos Concha, the rebel commander at Esmeraldas. Troops were called from the barracks in the vicinity and re-established order after a brisk struggle, in the course of which seven prisoners were shot dead and six wounded.

POISON USED IN ASSASSINATION OF GEN. CHAO PI CHUN

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM) Tien Tsin, China, Feb. 27.—Assassination by poison is believed to have brought about the death here today of General Chao Pi Chun, military governor of the province of Chi Li and former premier under President Yuan Shi Kai.

The Chinese statesman was ill only a few hours. He was stricken late last night and died this morning.

General Chao Ping Chun was a native of Ho Nan and was one of the president's staunchest supporters. He was police prefect at Tien Tsin, where he attracted the attention of Yuan Shi Kai.

WOMAN IS GRANTED PARDON

After Serving Thirteen Years in Jail For Murder of Husband

FIRST DEGREE MURDER

Verdict of Jury and She Was Sentenced to be Hanged But Four Governors Declined to Fix Day of Execution.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM) Reading, Feb. 27.—Mrs. Kate Edwards, who has been in the shadows of the gallows for nearly thirteen years for the killing of her husband, was released from the Berks county jail today under a pardon granted by Governor Tener and secretly taken from the city to begin life over again.

She was convicted of first degree murder in 1901 and sentenced to be hanged, but four governors declined to fix a day for her execution. After her conviction petitions were circulated in many parts of the country and were signed by thousands of women protesting against the execution of one of their sex. William A. Stone, who is now trying to prevent Harry K. Thaw from being returned to New York state from New Hampshire, when governor, refused to fix a date and passed her case along to Governor Pennypacker, who let her death warrant repose in a pigeon-hole as did also Governors Stuart and Tener.

Mrs. Edwards' case was several times taken to the board of pardons, but commutation of sentence was always refused. Last month however, the board recommended that she be pardoned, provided she would not be made a victim of further notoriety.

Much secrecy was maintained as to the date of the woman's liberation. Her pardon arrived last night and she was released before dawn today. It is believed she was taken to Philadelphia where she will be placed in an institution and cared for. She is nearly sixty years old.

Mrs. Edwards was convicted of the murder along with a negro, who was employed with her husband in a quarry near her home. The husband was found dead with his head battered.

A short time after her arrest Mrs. Edwards gave birth to a negro child. The woman later confessed that the negro was innocent of the murder and he was granted a new trial and acquitted. Mrs. Edwards has five children, who are living in different parts of the country.

Take a Tip From Old Diogenes

By MOSE.

PLATO having a couple of thousand years ago defined man as a two legged animal without feathers. Diogenes the chap who went around in the daytime with a lantern looking for an honest man, looked at a rooster and took it into the academy where the ancient philosophers discussed everything under the sun and said, "This is Plato's man."

On which account this addition was made to the definition: "With broad, flat nails."

We all admit that old Diogenes was a pretty smart Greek, with a sense of humor. If he lived today he wouldn't have brought out his lantern among daylight newspapers to find an honest advertiser.

SUCCESSFUL ADVERTISERS MUST BE HONEST. Dishonesty doesn't pay in advertising or in anything else. No daylight paper wants to have anything to do with the spore bayer who deliriously tries to fool the public.

But, coming back to Plato's modified man, the moral of that story is BE EXACT. Be specific. Don't overlook the details.

Do you watch the ads in this paper CAREFULLY enough? Do you keep posted on the details? Do you make it your business to read them with EXACTNESS?

Consul Letcher Telegraphs Bryan That Villa Will Permit Examination of Benton's Body

British Foreign Minister Supports American Policy

Sir Edward Grey, foreign affairs minister for the British empire, has come out flatfootedly in support of the American policy in Mexico in regard to the death of William S. Benton, a British subject, shot at the order of Villa, the ex-bandit. He took the first occasion in parliament to announce that the government would await action by the United States. In the mean time the British consul has begun an investigation of the circumstances of the death, and he will report to his home office. The foreign minister has no hope, however, of gathering more facts than will be learned by American investigators because of his lack of authority to compel witnesses to testify. The significance of the pronouncement of Sir Edward Grey lay in the fact of his quick recognition that the Monroe Doctrine covered the situation.

HANKINS SENTENCED TO PENITENTIARY BY JUDGE T. B. FULTON

Judge T. B. Fulton Friday sentenced two prisoners. George Hankins of Utica, found guilty of assault with criminal intent, was ordered committed to the Ohio penitentiary until discharged. He was taken to Columbus Friday afternoon by Sheriff Slabaugh.

Jacob Friddle of Johnstown, who pleaded guilty Thursday to operating a gambling room, was fined $100 and costs. The fine was remitted when Friddle paid costs.

Judge Fulton will hold court in Delaware Saturday.

LEADERS DIFFER AS TO RESULT OF YESTERDAY'S MEET

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM) Columbus, Feb. 27.—Leaders of the three major political parties were busy today taking stock following yesterday's big meeting which was intended to cement the amalgamation of the Republicans and Progressives by return of the latter to the parent organization. State Chairman Harry M. Daugherty issued a statement today in which he characterized yesterday's meeting as "the most wonderful of its kind ever held in Ohio."

Many of the Republican leaders predicted the collapse of the Progressive campaign in Ohio. Progressives and Democratic leaders asserted that instead of having promoted harmony the banquet had really widened the breach.

Women's suffrage leaders were satisfied upon the whole with the publicity given their cause through its public exposure by Senator Borah.

G. C. Saffarans, a United States army officer, is registered at the Sherwood hotel for a few days.

Two Americans, Two British Representatives and Members of Benton Family Will Be Present When the Corpse Is Exhumed

MATTER DISCUSSED AT TODAY'S MEETING OF THE CABINET

Washington Government Has No Assurances That Benton's Body Will be Turned Over to Relatives, But That Plan Will be Insisted Upon by Pres. Wilson and Secretary Bryan—Huerta Government Must Make Reparation for Hanging of An American Citizen.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM) Washington, Feb. 27.—Consul

Letcher telegraphed Secretary of State Bryan today that General Villa would permit two Americans, two British representatives and two members of the family of William S. Benton to view the body of the dead ranchman. It is assumed that the body is at Chihuahua City.

Consul Letcher also reported that General Villa would permit two physicians to accompany the American and British representatives and members of the Benton family and that he would furnish transportation and accommodations for all of them.

Secretary Bryan said just before entering the cabinet meeting that Consul Letcher's dispatches also confirmed previous information that Benton's body was in Chihuahua City. He said arrangements for the commission to Chihuahua to view the corpse and intimated that the disposition of the body would be settled after the medical examination.

Circumstances surrounding the death of William S. Benton, British subject at Juarez, Mexico, nearly two weeks ago, were again a subject for cabinet council.

President Wilson and Secretary of State Bryan were unable to lay before the cabinet meeting the promise of General Villa that a complete examination of the body of Benton would be permitted by a commission to consist of two Americans and British government representatives each. To the two requests that Villa surrender the body of Benton, the Washington government had received no satisfactory reply.

The constitutionalist general maintaining "that it would be improper to remove the body from the city of Chihuahua to which place it now develops he had removed it on a special train the very day that news of Benton's death officially was announced at Juarez."

That the United States will insist on the delivery of the body to the widow has been clearly emphasized by both the president and Secretary Bryan. Though for the present, it is believed the opportunity for medical examination will be the most important phase of the investigation. There is a feeling among some officials here that when General Carranza, chief of the constitutionalists and his friends get into closer touch with Villa they may convince him of the necessity of abandoning whatever sensational or religious reasons he may have for retaining the body.

Members of the cabinet individually have been giving much consideration to questions involved in General Villa's attitude. They have been thinking also of the possible effects generally of the Benton episode, if it should be proved that he was killed without court martial as his friends claim, in latest versions of the affair. This and the general subject of obtaining protection for foreigners in Mexico have been weighing on the minds of the cabinet officers, each with the idea of helping toward a solution of possible contingencies. The president himself has disposed to representatives that there should be no landing of marines or sending of troops across the border. Such steps, unless permission is asked of the governing authorities, he regards as an act of war. Having recognized no government in Mexico, there is no likelihood of asking such permission in the president's view.

There is no secret in official circles of the fact, however, that the American government had begun to expect much of the constitutionalists as people whose chief motive was the restoration of constitutional government in their country. To the factions themselves, the Washington government had decided to leave the settlement of the struggle, keeping hands off, so far as was consistent with international law. The execution by Villa of a foreigner without affording time for communication with the United States or his home government and the manifest disinclination to give up the body of the victim upon formal request from Washington have contributed to a feeling of uncertainty among American officials. Washington officials had been given to understand that General Carranza as the ruling factor in the constitutional cause, was a man of high character. It is obvious in official circles that the United States is now looking to General Carranza for a clarification of the whole affair. Carranza's arrival at Nogales, a border point, where he can be in close telegraphic communication both with his representatives in the United States and Villa at El Paso and Juarez, are expected to produce tangible developments.

Persons close to Carranza have been urging him to persuade Villa to surrender Benton's body and permit a thorough search for witnesses and evidence. If Villa has done anything wrong they contend that he should admit it so that the cause may be cleared of any cloud which otherwise might attach to it by an individual act.

Officials here are hoping that the council of the constitutionalists who hold these views may in the end prevail.

After a long lapse in the diplomatic exchanges between Washington and the city of Mexico, an attempt has been made to reopen the correspondence by the submission of an appeal by the Huerta government for the reconsideration by the United States of the recent raising of the embargo on arms to Mexico.

The feature of the Mexican communication, said to have been issued at Mexico City last night, is the allegation that a state of anarchy now exists in so much of Mexico as is occupied by the rebel forces and it is also charged that the immediate effect of the decree permitting the exportation of arms has been to place the rebels in a favorable situation for permitting outrages while preventing the Huerta government from repressing them as quickly and as energetically as it desires.

On the other hand, it is set out that wherever the Huerta government is in power full protection has been given to nationals and foreigners. Therefore the United States is invited to reflect seriously "upon the sad consequences" that arising of rebels will bring, in the opinion of the Huerta government.

The assumption in official circles is that Huerta does not by the presentation of such a remarkable note expect to bring about, immediately, a change of policy on the part of the Washington administration.

The real purpose is believed to be to add another note to the exchanges, perfecting his case, as it were, for the consideration of the world powers.

It is not expected that the state department will return any formal answer to this last communication.

Gargie Algara, at the Mexican embassy, was notified today that the Huerta government had delivered such a communication to American representatives and diplomatic representatives of other powers in Mexico City. He did not receive a copy of it.

That the American government regards the hanging of Clemente Vergara, an American citizen, near Hidalgo, Mex., as a subject for reparation by the Huerta government became known after today's cabinet meeting.

Mr. Bryan said today he had no information concerning the reported confessions of General Villa that he

BADLY BURNED IN KITCHEN OF HIS RESIDENCE

Fred Johnson, living in West Church street, received serious burns on Thursday evening at his home. Mr. Johnson was in the kitchen of his home where the floor is covered with linoleum. The ice had collected on his shoes and he slipped and in falling struck the stove. He threw out both hands to break the fall and they came in contact with the top of the stove which was red hot. One hand was burned to the bone, while the other was seriously blistered. The number of the stove which was embossed on it was branded in the palm of one of his hands. Dr. C. F. Legge dressed the injuries.

MAYOR WILL NOT PERMIT SLAUGHTER OF THE SPARROWS

Mayor Bigbee threw cold water on a movement started by Pearl Street residents who planned to wage a war on the English sparrows which have become such a nuisance as to threaten the song birds with extermination. The mayor told a representative of the residents in that district that he would not allow the use of fire arms in the slaughter of the pests. A city ordinance forbids the discharge of firearms in the city limits but the Pearl street residents contend that the ordinance is violated daily with no prosecutions and that in a case of this character it works a hardship on those who are annoyed by the presence of the thousands of sparrows, that are regarded as bird enemies. English sparrows have long since been declared a nuisance and organized fights against them have frequently been made in various parts of the state. Their presence in large numbers is sure to drive away the native song birds which every lover of nature is anxious to preserve and make welcome.

THE WORLD'S TOUR OF BALL PLAYERS PROVES SUCCESS

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM) New York, Feb. 27.—On the world's tour of the New York Giants and Chicago White Sox, which came to an end at London yesterday, so far as competitive baseball is concerned, the American League representatives return home winners of the majority of the fifty games played. Since the tour began at Cincinnati a little more than four months ago forty-six games have been played between the globe touring teams and four with the native teams in Japan and Australia. The White Sox won twenty-four games against the Giants. McGraw's men won twenty and two ended ties. Of the fifty games played thirty-one were played in the United States and nineteen, including the four games against native teams, were played abroad. Financially the tour has exceeded the expectations of the promoters. It was announced when first arranged that an even break would be considered satisfactory, but the games in the United States brought in almost $100,000 at the gate. A few days ago an announcement was made that the receipts were almost $75,000 above the expenses.

A Kidney Remedy That Has Thousands Of Friends

I believe Dr. Kilmer & Company of Binghamton, N. Y., manufacture one of the best medicines for the kidneys, liver and blood, called "Swamp-Root" ever produced, and I take pleasure in recommending it to others.

After trying several remedies for the kidneys and liver trouble, which apparently had taken on chronic form, I was urged to give Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root a fair trial and wrote for a trial bottle, which was promptly mailed to my address. I was so well pleased with the action of the remedy that I purchased it in five bottle lots and continued taking the remedy until I was fully satisfied that my kidneys and liver were restored to a healthy condition.

Prior to accepting this remedy I was almost daily afflicted with hemorrhage from the nose which physicians were unable to check or prescribe a remedy for, unquestionably caused by the condition of my kidneys, my heart at times affected, my stomach and other organs in sympathy, all of which have been completely restored to a normal condition. I weigh fifteen pounds more than I did three years ago, the result of complying with the printed directions found with a bottle of Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root.

I have been in the railway service for the past forty years and have been a resident of this city for the past twenty-three years.

Very truly yours,
E. PITNEY.

338 West Patten St., Paxton, Ill.

RING RECOVERED; MAN IS HELD ON CHARGE OF THEFT

Following an investigation by Police Captain Swank, William Turner, colored, employed in a local hotel, was arrested Thursday night on a charge of taking a diamond ring from the pocket of Viola Williams, another employee in the hotel. The ring was recovered.

The Williams woman reported the loss of the ring Wednesday night. She told Captain Swank that she left the ring in her coat which she removed after reporting for work and a short time later when she searched for the ring it was missing. Seven people were employed in the kitchen, none of them being suspected. The investigation fastened suspicion on Turner and his arrest and the recovery of the ring followed.

Turner was arraigned before Mayor Bigbee-Friday morning and pleaded guilty to the charge, declaring that he took the ring "just for fun." He was fined $25 and costs and sentenced to the Columbus workhouse until the fine and costs are paid. The sentence was suspended on his agreement to leave the city at once.

We Promise You Relief from All Stomach Troubles Or Your Money Back

We honestly believe we have the best remedy in the world for indigestion and dyspepsia. We urge you to try it at our risk. If it doesn't relieve you—as we feel sure it will—we'll give back your money without a word. You know us—your family druggist. You know we wouldn't dare recommend anything we didn't know about, nor dare to break a promise. Therefore, when we recommend any remedy it is because we believe it to be better than any other to relieve the ailment for which it is made, and when we prove our faith in it and our sincerity toward you by promising to give back your money if it doesn't relieve you and in every way satisfy you, you have no possible excuse for doubt or hesitation.

Rexall Dyspepsia Tablets

are, we honestly believe, the best remedy made for Indigestion, Dyspepsia and all other Stomach Ills

We Know They're Good

Rexall Dyspepsia Tablets, in addition to other ingredients, contain Pepsin and Bismuth, two great digestive aids used by the entire medical profession. They soothe the inflamed stomach, check the heartburn and distress, stimulate a healthy secretion of the gastric juice, aid in rapid and comfortable digestion of the food and help to quickly convert it into rich red blood, and thereby into flesh, bone and muscle. They relieve stomach distress promptly, and, used regularly for a short time, tend to restore the stomach to a comfortable, easy-acting, healthy state. They aid greatly to promote regular bowel action.

Delays Are Dangerous

Don't neglect indigestion, for it frequently leads to all sorts of ills and complications. The pain and discomfort is not the most unfortunate part. The fact that when the stomach is not acting right, the material needed to repair the wastes that are constantly taking place in the body is not being given to the blood either in the proper condition or fast enough is far more serious. Nothing will cause more trouble than an unhealthy stomach. The blues, debility, lack of strength and energy, constipation, biliousness, headaches and scores of other serious ailments result from the failure of the stomach to properly do its work.

You Risk No Money

Our willingness to have you use Rexall Dyspepsia Tablets entirely at our risk proves our faith in them. We always sell them this way, and it is because we know that they have greatly benefited scores of sufferers to whom we have sold them. There's no red tape about our guarantee. It means just what it says. We'll ask you no questions. You needn't sign anything. Your word is enough for us. We know that when they help you you will consider it money well spent even if they had cost you ten times as much. If they don't help you, the money you paid for them is yours, and we want you to have it.

Sold only at the more than 7,000 Rexall Stores—the World's Greatest Drug Stores. In convenient boxes—three sizes: 25c, 50c, $1.00

THE STAND-PAT GET TOGETHER GATHERING

Well, it has happened! The great Republican get-together gathering has gathered. The gathering, being constituted chiefly of stand-patter Republicans, was not a getting-together of Republicans and Progressives, but merely a getting together of the old stand-pat Republican crowd, all by themselves, that was so overwhelmingly repudiated at the polls in 1912.

Among their number yesterday were a few men who espoused the Progressive cause in 1912, but in practically every case their return to the Republican fold was the result of disappointment in not landing appointments for themselves or their friends.

The position of Ohio Progressives was made very plain at the State Progressive conference in Columbus on January 8 last. At that meeting practically every county in the state was represented. That meeting was unanimously opposed to amalgamation with any party, and as strongly in favor of the nomination of full Progressive state, congressional, legislative and county tickets, and the carrying on of a very vigorous campaign in Ohio this year for the Progressive party, its candidates and its principles.

There is no possibility of Progressives being coaxed back into the reactionary Republican ranks.

One of the principal speakers of the stand-pat gathering yesterday assailed the Progressives leaders as allies of Governor Cox.

The meeting was distinctly led by Faraker and enthused by Forakerism.

There is suspicion in Russia that the announcement of the disappearance of Lieutenant Sedoff, who started for the arctic, using polar bears as draft animals, is perfectly self explanatory.

In the name of science Sir William Ramsay renews the question whether it would not be better to let the nut die instead of coddling them. Who is to draw the line as to the nut—the state, the parents or a doctor with a bagful of theories?

Dr. Anna Shaw says women would make better street sweepers than men. She may be right, but the time wasted would be about the same. Where a man stops to light his pipe a woman would consume as much time bothering with her back hair.

On Second Thought

It is said of nearly every worthless man: "He comes of a fine family."

Unless he was called into consultation, or assisted in the operation, a doctor doesn't care whether the newspapers mention him or not.

When it comes to a woman's complexion, art can be of considerable assistance to nature.

A man gets over the notion that he is good looking. But he never ceases to believe that he is attractive to the ladies.

If you wish to learn all about the character of a man play a social game of cards with him.

What became of the old-fashioned man of whom it was said: "He eats so much it makes him poor to carry it?"

Riches.

The more cold coin a fellow collars, the hungrier he gets for dollars. When he is young and short of troubles, he says "Some fifty thousand and roubles will be a fortune quite imposing. When I have that I won't go nosing around in search of extra kroners. Like some old greedy money loaners. By that time I'll be old and wheezy, so I'll sit down and take it easy." But when he has that bunch of guilders, he says, "Oh, chee! the fortune builders would laugh to scorn my paltry savings—methinks I hear their jocular savings! So I'll go forth and nail a million—I will, so help me Colonel Lillian!" Then through the clanging marts he wanders, and all the sunny years he squanders, and travels at a pace that's killing to get the kopeck and the shilling. And when he's old and frail and battered, his heart worn out, his system shattered, from toiling up Gain's crooked trackage, he looks upon his handsome package, and sighs: "It is a measly bundle, and my old bones I'll have to trundle until my meagre roll is padded with other millions to be added." Then Death comes up, the Doom that wrecks us, and soaks him in the solar plexus, and in his shroud morticians wind him, and all his seeds are left behind him.

HEALTH HINT FOR TODAY.

Avoid All Stimulants.

Spring and summer drinks should not include stimulants, alcoholic or otherwise. Beer, wines, champagne and ale all increase the surface heat of the body and make heat less endurable and the body less able to withstand heat and fatigue. Lemonade, fruit punches and carbonated waters are the best drinks for hot weather. Tea and coffee should be iced. It is a mistake to think that impure water can be made drinkable by the addition of a little tea or coffee. This water can be made pure by boiling it for a short time. This kills bacteria, and the impurities settle to the bottom. These may be removed by pouring off the water and leaving the settlings. Of course tea and coffee when boiled or made with boiling water are sterile also and therefore drinkable.

As to drinking iced water, if it is taken in moderate quantities and not on coming in from the hot sun it can do no harm. A great many think that it cools the stomach and prevents digestion. In reality experiment has shown that the stomach is at a higher temperature than the outside air and when cold water or food enters it within two minutes it is warmed to the temperature of the body, thus having little effect on digestion. However, it does have considerable effect in cooling the body and increasing perspiration.

Edward Thornton.....Maro MacDermott
Fanny, his daughter.....Gertrude McCoy
George Archer, her husband.....Augustus Phillips
Paul Brown, his friend.....Benjamin Wilson
Schwartz, a jeweler.....William Bechtel

HORNTON had not been enthusiastic about the marriage. He was an affectionate father, however, and, although he could be stubborn enough when he conceived the occasion demanded firmness, he had adopted the settled policy of not interfering with his daughter's affairs of heart.

Thornton's chief objection to Archer was that he was in business. He had a confirmed aversion to trade of all kinds and a lurking suspicion that all business men were scoundrels. Thornton's own mental turn was artistic. He was an art connoisseur and a collector. His people had been wealthy so long they had gotten into the habit of inheriting money. Naturally he had only a vague understanding of men who had to scheme and struggle and toil in order to meet their bills.

Brought up amid surroundings in which every luxury came as a matter of course, Fanny, the daughter, knew little of the world. So far as the marriage was concerned she knew only this: that she loved Archer and simply had to have him. So the marriage became an actuality. They were happy.

Bruce, the banker, had been Archer's rival. That fact, however, had not been permitted to interfere with their friendship after the marriage. In fact, Bruce was one of the frequent visitors at the Archer residence.

That Archer was getting into financial difficulties became known to Bruce first when the banker was asked to advance him $20,000 on a thirty day note. A Florida land proposition in which Archer had invested heavily was constantly demanding new money.

Bruce accepted the note. He was glad for reasons of his own to place Archer under obligations to him. But when the day came when the land proposition turned out to be a flivver he was adamant in his refusal to grant an extension. That left Archer face to face with the specter of bankruptcy.

Archer told his wife. She promptly offered an expedient.

"See my father," she said. "He is wealthy. Twenty thousand dollars is nothing to him." But Fanny did not understand her father. Archer's request for the loan aroused all of his father-in-law's prejudices. His answer was a definite refusal.

Archer was cool enough when he came home, but his very coolness threw his wife into terror. "It means simply this," he told her. "The note is due tomorrow. I shan't be able to meet it. I am ruined."

When he had gone his wife's first recourse was tears. Then she began to think. She remembered her father's collection of opals. He had said they were worth $20,000. She knew where he kept them and she knew where she could sell them.

Fanny's maid at this moment brought in Bruce's card. She did not want to see him, but it was impossible to avoid the interview. Bruce entered and to her surprise and anger tried to make love to her. She brought the episode to an abrupt close by ordering him out of the house.

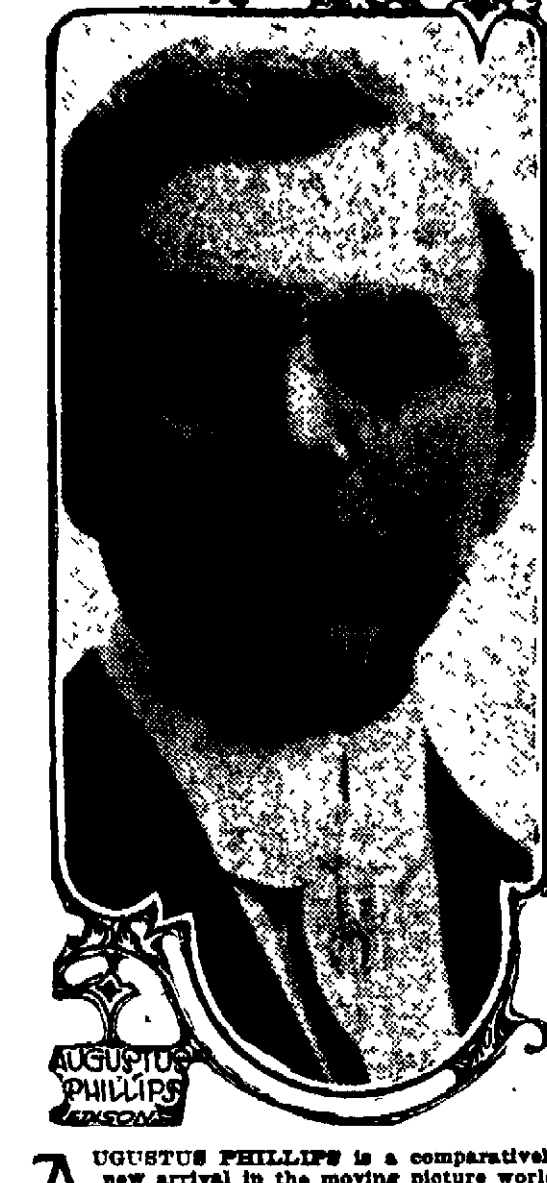

Fanny's mind was in such a turmoil that the enormity of what Bruce had attempted impressed her only vaguely. She was obsessed with her desire to possess the opals. A moment after Bruce had left she was hurrying to her father's house. The jewels were where she expected to find them. A moment of breathless terror and she found herself in the street with the case containing the opals.

Ten minutes later she was at the jeweler's. Schwartz looked the gems over lovingly. Then he offered $18,000. Fanny was too inexperienced to haggle.

"I must have $20,000," she said desperately. "Here is my solitaire. It cost $4,000. Give me $2,000 for it." Fanny was calmer when she left, for she had accomplished what she had set out to do. Besides she was about to face her husband and she realized that to avoid arousing his suspicions she would need all her calmness.

She found him, dejected, in his office and laid the bundle of money before him.

"I have just been to my father's," she said with perfect truthfulness. "I succeeded where you failed."

AUGUSTUS PHILLIPS is a comparatively new arrival in the movie picture world. He spent eight years in a Brooklyn stock company, followed by two years at the Fifth Avenue and Lincoln Square theaters in New York. During this period he played Jules Maubien in Eugene Walter's "The Wolf." Then he was for a season under the Cohen & Harrie management in "Miss Annanias." He was with the Southern Stock company of Columbus, O., and leading man at the Alcazar theater in San Francisco. He has met with great success in his new field and is regarded by the Edison company as one of the most valuable men on its staff of actors.

Archer's first step after his wife had left him was to call the telephone.

"Bring over the note," he said. "I wish to pay it."

The interview between the two men was cold. Each realized their friendship was ended. There was something sardonic in Bruce's manner which Archer didn't like. Bruce had seen Mrs. Archer leaving the jeweler's. He knew of the Thornton opals. He already suspected.

When Mrs. Archer arrived at home she found Bruce waiting for her. He renewed his attempt at love-making, again she repulsed him.

"Very well," said the banker. "I shall inform your husband it was I who advanced the money to pay the note. I should like to inquire what answer you will have to make to that?"

Under this covert threat Fanny collapsed. Then she began pleading. On her knees before the banker she begged him to keep her secret. Her husband found her thus.

Archer had heard just enough of the conversation to convince him that Bruce had advanced the money. He felt himself betrayed. In a fury he ordered the banker to leave. Then he turned to his wife and flung her to the floor. His violence might have carried him further, but he was interrupted. Thornton stood in the doorway. He had heard everything.

"Stop," he ordered, addressing Archer. "My daughter has told you the truth. It was from me she got the $20,000."

The father took the half fainting Fanny in his arms.

Archer was too delighted to question his wife. Her explanation was simple.

But while her husband was taking Fanny in his arms and thanking her for what she had done for him complications were arising, the natural consequence of her action.

Schwartz the jeweler realized he had made a magnificent bargain. As he revealed in the beauty of the opals the satisfying thought came to him that he knew where he could dispose of them at a fine profit.

"I'll go to Thornton," he said. "He is a collector and will be delighted with them."

Schwartz was surprised to find Thornton's interest in the gems was only casual.

"I have something of the kind myself," he said. "Let me show them to you."

He went to the rifed cabinet. The opals were not there. His first impulse was to shout that he had been robbed. Then something—the thought perhaps of betraying emotion before this tradesman—restrained him. He returned to Schwartz.

"Where did you get them?" he inquired.

"I bought them from a lady."

"You know her?"

"No. Her identity was none of my business. She also sold me this ring."

He displayed the solitaire.

Thornton recognized the gem. He paled, but said nothing.

"I don't think I'll show you my opals," he said steadily. "They are, perhaps, not so good as those. How much?"

"Thirty thousand dollars."

"Let me write you a check."

Peggy Rainforth is a starving art student who faints in the art gallery where she is painting. She is saved from falling by Gerald Foster, also an art student, who is backed by a rich uncle. This incident ends in their marriage.

In marrying, Gerald runs counter to his uncle's wishes. So the young people refrain from telling him the news and go to living happily in the apartment furnished for Gerald by Uncle George.

One morning, in the midst of the moonlight, a telegram arrives from Uncle George saying that he is coming to town and will stay with Gerald. This precipitates a painful situation, which is saved by Peggy's bright idea that she play the part of Gerald's page.

MAY ERECT A NATIONAL UNIVERSITY

[ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM]
Washington, Feb. 27.—Edmund J. James, president of the University of Illinois, today submitted to the House committee on education, an exhaustive argument in favor of the Fess bill establishing a national university in Washington in which he emphasized the uplifting influence such an institution would exert.

President James pointed out that such a university to be made effective should be put under the absolute control of a board of trustees appointed by the president of the United States. He said it would be undesirable to combine private and public control in its management.

He had no doubt, he said, that had Washington's suggestion been followed, "American education would today be distinctly farther along in every branch of its development."

President James expressed the belief, however, that if the federal government were, even at this late day, to follow Washington's advice and erect a national university here it would have exerted today the same kind of uplifting influence that it would have exerted if established a century ago.

"Such an institution," he declared, "would exert a subtle and far reaching influence in the direction of emphasizing the importance of human science in the development of our civilization."

Is the Advocate Contest Fair?

This newspaper welcomes criticism, especially when the critic shows a disposition to be fair as well as frank. Thinking that possibly others may share some of the views expressed by "D. C. B." whose letter is here printed, the Advocate takes pleasure in bringing it to the attention of all readers and at the same time invites attention to the subjoined reply:

"I am interested in your Booklovers' Contest and beg leave to ask this question: Is it possible for the Advocate or any other paper to conduct such a contest on a fair basis? I claim it is not, and will give three principal reasons why I claim it is not fair.

"I taught in the public schools for a number of years and have graded hundreds of manuscripts of pupils. Teachers grade manuscripts from 1 to 100; one hundred representing a perfect grade. Now in grading the answers in your contest it must be done on the basis that there can not possibly be but one correct answer to each picture; while in the case of most of the pictures there is not only one but a number of answers each one of which is equally good.

"Take picture No. 2 for example. We will suppose that you claim that 'The Old Curiosity Shop' is the correct answer. In the catalogue we find the title 'The Open Shutter'. Now any competent disinterested judge would hold, I am sure, that one answer is just as good as the other. Yet the contestant who gives the first answer gets a perfect grade, while the second gets a grade of nothing.

"The same in regard to No. 5, 'Snowbound'. 'Snowed Up', 'In the Deep of the Snow', and perhaps other titles would answer this picture one equally as well as the other. So I claim first that the contest can not be fair because there can be no fair basis of grading the answers.

"In the second place the name of each contestant is to be written on each coupon, and it will be impossible to get an impartial judgment, because the judges will know some of the contestants, and where the contest is close, will favor the ones in whom they are personally interested.

"In the third place we will suppose that the contest is put on the basis, that the artist who knows, of course, what he intended each picture to represent, is the only person who does know the correct answer to every picture. Then he would perhaps know some of those who are in the contest and could give the correct list to whomsoever he chose, and thus give his friends a chance to win first prize.

"And also if the awards are given on the basis that the answers which the artist, the contest editor, the judges or any other person says are the only correct ones, then it is not a contest of ability as has been represented in the Advocate, but just merely a 'happen so'.

"Now for these reasons I claim that such a contest cannot possibly be fair.

"D. C. B."

Answering Mr. B.'s first question, we say positively and emphatically that this Booklovers' contest not only can be conducted upon a fair basis but it WILL BE SO CONDUCTED.

In announcing the contest the Advocate published a list of rules and every day since picture No. 1 appeared these same rules have been printed under the contest picture. There is but one correct answer to each picture and the illustration every day represents some one of the books named in the Advocate catalogue. Taking it for granted that some of the pictures may appear to have more than one solution, the Advocate has provided that each contestant may if he or she chooses, submit not more than 5 answers to each picture. The one submitting the most correct answers in the fewest coupons ranks first. (See paragraphs 5 and 6 of the rules.)

It is not in province of the Booklovers' contest judges to determine which is the BEST answer to the pictures but they are to decide what contestants come nearest to naming the books in the mind of the man or woman who gave the suggestions to the artists. The artists themselves do not know the names of the books they are illustrating. They are given a suggestion to draw a certain picture, are told what to put in the picture and the one making the suggestion to the artist, himself decides what book that particular picture is to represent. If the picture fairly represents the book can there be anything unfair about it? Does Mr. B. or any other person contend that it is unfair if there is more than one probable answer to a picture? The one who makes the suggestion for the pictures gives assurance that the picture fairly represents the book named as the correct answer.

Suppose the picture should represent a picture of Little Eva and Uncle Tom and Eliza, couldn't anybody in a second tell that the answer was "Uncle Tom's Cabin"? If every picture were as plain as that could there be any contest about it? Everybody would score 100, all would be entitled to the capital prize of $515 and it would be divided into so many pieces that nobody would get anything worth while.

As it is, it is a question of wits. The one with the keenest wits, the one who studies the pictures most carefully and who is best acquainted with the list of books, the one who discusses the pictures with friends and gets the other person's opinions and weighs them with his own will stand the best chance of winning.

Mr. B. assumes that the artist knows what book he is illustrating, but the Advocate has repeatedly said that the artist has no knowledge whatever of the book he is picturing. Some of the suggestions to the Newark artist are made by an Advocate man while some of the suggestions are made by a man in another city to another artist, neither of whom has two cents worth of interest in the Advocate or in anything in Newark. This is done so that the Advocate can say positively that no one person knows all the answers to the pictures and not until the envelopes containing the correct answers are opened by the judges will the correct answers be known. As before stated, two different people are making suggestions to two different artists, and this being the case, it is barely possible that two or more of the pictures may represent the same book, though it hardly seems probable that such will be the case.

As the artists do not know and can not learn the real answers, it is manifestly impossible for them to tell their friends.

If any contestant has so little confidence in the integrity of this newspaper as to think that the Advocate would under any circumstance reveal a single answer to anybody on earth he should quit solving the pictures right now. The contest will be as fairly and squarely conducted as it is possible for human hands and brains to do it. The contestants will have to take the Advocate's word for that and we are indeed glad to know that thousands of people have already done so. More and more are joining the contest every day and all are welcome.

As soon as the engraver finishes his work pictures of the five judges will appear. These judges are among the best known and most respected men of the community. Their names are the synonym of honor and integrity and when their names are announced nobody will say that they can be swayed from rendering an absolutely just verdict in every case.

It is just as easy to start in the contest today as it has been at any time. Simply see the rules on page 2 and get the few back coupons at this office. The 136 prizes worth $3,846, are all free to readers of this newspaper. The territory is limited to Licking and the adjoining counties. If any contestant has any question to ask or any criticism to offer he is cordially invited to write to the contest editor. The Advocate will be pleased to hear from anyone.

Contest Editor's Query Column

The Advocate will be glad to answer all legitimate questions regarding the contest through the Contest Editor's query column. Questions may be sent by mail or telephone but the answers will be printed in this column so that no contestant will have any advantage over another.

Telephone—You may submit one, two, three, four or five (not more) answers to any or all the pictures. If you submit more than one answer to any picture you may still submit only one answer to any other picture or pictures.

D. B.—Your questions and observations are printed in full in another column and our answer appears in connection with your communication.

S. H.—See paragraph one of the second page of the cover of the Advocate catalogue.

Contestant—Cut out the picture along the lines just above the words "What is meant by this picture," and below the date under "My address." If one prefers to leave the words "Advocate Booklovers' Contest prize picture" on the coupon it will undoubtedly be satisfactory to the judges. Each contestant should observe uniformity and neatness in cutting out the coupons.

A. C. G.—Your question has been answered before but you having just become interested are entitled to know that you now have as good an opportunity as any one. Come or send for the back coupons. Nobody in the limited territory (except a few families) can start now.

D. A. R.—We shall announce the names of the judges within a week. The judges have all been selected and have accepted the invitation to make the awards.

Reader—Your friend in Cambridge may assist you but the coupons must be signed by a resident of this county or one of the adjacent counties.

Inquirer—You ask why the Advocate limited the territory in this contest. The object of this contest is to provide entertainment, amusement and instruction for Advocate readers, to pay them for their effort and to advertise this paper and introduce it into new homes. We can not reasonably expect to maintain a large list of subscribers at distant points but we want to thoroughly cover the territory which this paper can reasonably hope to serve. The contest was therefore confined to Licking and adjoining counties.

G. A. B.—See yesterday's paper please.

B. G.—The best answer to your inquiry about the "probable answers" that several business men are posting about town is given in the reply to a contestant printed today under double column caption "Is the Advocate Contest Fair?" Read it, please. The contestants are naturally interested in these probable answers, but the men who are posting them will tell you they are simply their own judgment of the pictures.

Granville—We shall send you a copy of the catalogue if you will kindly send us 27 cents. We are not making any charge accounts for catalogues or coupons.

A Doctor's First Question Is _____?

"How are Your Bowels?" A Simple Remedy that Guarantees Good Bowel Action.

Trace the origin of the commoner ills of life and almost invariably you will find constipation was the cause. It is not to be expected that a mass of fermented food can remain in the system beyond its time without vitiating the blood and affecting the nerves and muscles. It congests the entire body.

The results are colds, fevers, piles, headaches, and nervousness, with its accompanying indigestion and sleeplessness. There is only one thing to do, and that is to remove the trouble; and when nature seems unable to do it, outside aid is necessary. You will find the best of all outside aids a remedy that many thousands are now using for this very purpose, called Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin. Many hundreds of letters are received by Dr. Caldwell telling of the good results obtained, and among the enthusiastic letters is one from Lieut. G. W. Vaughan, of 623 W. North St., Decatur, Ill. He is 72 and has had a bad liver and stomach since he came out of the army. He says he tried about everything, but never succeeded in getting permanent relief until he took Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin. He is never without a bottle in the house, and he is never without good health.

It has untold advantages over pills, salts and the various coarse cathartics and purgatives, for while these do but temporary good, Syrup Pepsin cures permanently. The effect of its action is to train the stomach and bowel muscles to do their work naturally again, and in a short time all forms of medicine can be dispensed with. It can be bought without inconvenience at any nearby drug store for fifty cents and one dollar a bottle, the latter size being regularly bought by those who already know its value. Results are always guaranteed or money will be refunded. Families wishing to try a free sample bottle can obtain it postpaid by addressing Dr. W. B. Caldwell, 419 Washington St., Monticello, Ill. A postal card with your name and address on it will do.

The lovers of silent drama will be able to see the most unusual performance Sunday at the Auditorium, that has been shown in Newark in a long time. Much care has been exercised in selecting this program. In their offering for Sunday the following picture will be shown: "The Green Horn," a special two reel drama by the Broncho Co. "Two Girls of the Hills," a story depicting the life of folks in the west, and two very screamingly funny comedies "Murphy's New Hat" and "Making Himself a Hero." As an added feature to this very unusual program "Peggy's Invitation" will conclude the entertainment. Owing to the management fearing the picture "The Yellow Passport" booked for next Sunday might not be up to the standard they cancelled and immediately got in communication with the Mutual for special service this Sunday. ditorium theater for one performance only. Owing to Newark being outside of the route this company had followed going east it took much persuasion on the part of the management to get them to agree to play here and, after seeing the excellence of this company, the patrons of the Auditorium will agree, it was worth while persuading them. This aggregation of minstrel stars is one of the oldest and most successful on tour, having a reputation reaching from ocean to ocean. In improved minstrelsy the "osdar" system gives way to an all around collection of bright, talented performers. Just as the Frohman and Daly Companies, of New York City, and the former Wallack Company discarded the "Star" for general all around ability. There is new material for the new demands, and the interesting program is long and filled with the latest up-to-date ideals and novelties.

There will be a street parade and concert at noon. Seats are now on sale at the box office.

BAD BREATH

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets Get at the Cause and Remove it

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets, the substitute for calomel, act gently on the bowels and positively do the work.

People afflicted with bad breath find quick relief through Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets. The pleasant, sugar-coated tablets are taken for bad breath by all who know them.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets act gently but firmly on the bowels and liver, stimulating them to natural action, clearing the blood and gently purifying the entire system.

They do that which dangerous calomel does without any of the bad after effects.

All the benefits of nasty, sickening, gripping, cathartics are derived from Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets without gripping, pain or disagreeable effects of any kind.

Dr. F. M. Edwards discovered the formula after seventeen years of practice among patients afflicted with bowel and liver complaint with the attendant bad breath.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets are purely a vegetable compound mixed with olive oil, you will know them by their olive color.

Take one or two every night for a week and note the effect. 10c and 25c per box. The Olive Tablet Company, Columbus, Ohio. All drug gists.

IT WORKED WELL IN CANTON—WHY NOT HERE ALSO?

The frozen water pipe problem is solved. Solved for some Cantonians at least if not for you.

And it is solved for you if you happen to have an electric—

But better tell the story first. A well known Canton man hurried to his home the other night in response to a telephone call from his wife who told of all the water pipes in the kitchen being frozen.

Arriving at the house the husband investigated and finally decided the ice had formed in the pipes just above the kitchen floor.

He knew fires had been started by people who had used indoor bonfires to start a thaw in a frozen water pipe. Finally he had a bright idea.

"Bring your electric iron," he commanded his wife.

The iron was produced and connected with the electric light socket. Down on his knees went the husband. He commenced to iron the pipes. In five minutes the water was running from both kitchen faucets in an uninterrupted flow.

RENEGADE SOLDIERS OF GERMAN SAMOA KILLED IN FIGHT

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM) Pago Pago, American Samoa, Feb. 13.—(Via San Francisco, Feb. 27.)—Three renegade native soldiers of German Samoa were killed and another badly wounded in an all-day fight waged with a posse sent to arrest them, according to steamer advices just received from Apia. One white man of the attacking party was fatally wounded, dying soon after the encounter, and others were more or less seriously hurt.

BIG YEARLY INCOMES.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM) Chicago, Feb. 27.—Income tax schedules filed yesterday at the United States internal revenue office showed that one Chicagoan will pay taxes on a yearly income estimated at nearly $1,000,000. The office was notified that a man, whose name was not made public, was prepared to pay $42,516.68 as his net tax on an income of $750,000 derived between March 1 and Dec. 31.

LIABLE FOR TAX.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM) London, Feb. 27.—The Court of Appeals today decided that Mrs. Baldwin Drummond, formerly Mrs. Marshall Field, Jr., is liable for the payment of income tax in England on money remitted to her from the United States under the provisions of the will of her late husband for the education of her three children.

IS CHILD CROSS, FLVERISH, SICK

Look, Mother! If Tongue is Coated and Stomach Sour, Give "California Syrup of Figs."

Children love this "fruit laxative" and nothing cleanses the tender stomach, liver and bowels so nicely.

A child simply will not stop playing to empty the bowels, and the result is, they become tightly clogged with waste, liver gets sluggish, stomach sours, then your little one becomes cross, half-sick, feverish, don't eat, sleep or act naturally, breath is bad, system full of cold, has sore throat, stomach-ache or diarrhoea. Listen, Mother! See if tongue is coated, then give a teaspoonful of "California Syrup of Figs," and in a few hours all the constipated waste, sour bile and undigested food passes out of the system, and you have a well, playful child again.

Millions of mothers give "California Syrup of Figs" because it is perfectly harmless; children love it, and it never fails to act on the stomach, liver and bowels.

Ask your druggist for a 50-cent bottle of "California Syrup of Figs," which has full directions for babies, children of all ages and for grown-ups plainly printed on the bottle. Beware of counterfeits sold here. Get the genuine, made by "California Fig Syrup Company." Refuse any other kind with contempt.

MARRIED WOMEN ARE BARRED FROM THE POLICE FORCE

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM) Pittsburg, Feb. 27.—Married women are barred from appointment to the Pittsburg police force according to regulations issued today by Charles S. Hubbard, director of public safety, on the ground that single women will have more time to look after their official duties. Twenty applications have been filed for the four positions to be filled by women on the local force. The successful ones will not be required to wear uniforms and will each be paid $75 a month. They will be subject to the general rules governing the police department.

HERE'S A CHANCE FOR THE PATRIOTS WHO WANT OFFICE

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM) Crooksville, Feb. 27.—Perry County commissioners are looking for a good reliable board of trustees for the children's home and are having their troubles getting anyone to bite. Two weeks ago they discharged the acting board and since then three sets of new appointees have turned down the jobs.

GENDARMES ARE CORNERED.

Teheran, Persia, Feb. 27.—A detachment of 150 gendarmes is cornered in its barracks at Kazerun by a large body of tribesmen. The battle begun yesterday and continued with desperate fighting when the latest reports left the scene today.

A WOMAN'S HEALTH

Every woman's health is peculiarly dependent upon the condition of her blood. How many women suffer with headache, pain in the back, poor appetite, weak digestion, a constant feeling of weariness, palpitation of the heart, shortness of breath, pallor and nervousness? If you have any of these symptoms, do not despair of getting better but begin now, today, to build up your blood with Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. See how the nervous energy of the body is restored as the blood becomes pure and red and the entire system is strengthened to meet every demand upon it.

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills are useful for all women but they are particularly valuable to girls of school age who show symptoms of going into a decline, who become pale, nervous and languid. These pills aid in securing perfect development and health by strengthening the system, and purifying and building up the blood. Thin blood during the growing years of a girl's life usually means a flat-chested and hollow-cheeked womanhood. There can be neither health nor beauty without red blood which gives brightness to the eyes and color to cheeks and lips.

Write now to the Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Schenectady, N. Y., for two helpful booklets, "Plain Talks to Women" and "Building Up the Blood."

VAUDEVILLE AT ORPHEUM MAKES HIT

One of the best vaudeville shows which has played here this season is at the Orpheum theatre in the Arcade for the last half of the week. There are six meritorious acts besides the two reels of photoplays.

Manager Evans has secured the Bert Marshall All Star Cyclonic Vaudeville road show, which is under the personal direction of Mr. Albert J. Ross, one of the best known theatrical men on the Pacific coast. Mr. Ross hails from Seattle, Wash., where he owns and operates one of the largest theatres in the west, but the call of the road came upon him and being an old time actor he found it impossible to resist and once again started on a tour of the country. He will organize a second company shortly and place it upon the road and then devote his time to looking after his interests. At present he is a member of the team of Ross and Shaw, who present their original absurdity "In Jungletown," a musical burlesque. The act goes big, gets many laughs and makes a hit at every performance.

The other five acts are Parsons, the comedy juggler, who does many difficult feats with balls, hats, Indian clubs, in fact any old thing that happens to be handy. Sawtelle and Mack, two dainty little maidens, made a hit with the audience from the moment they appeared upon the stage. Both are pretty and graceful, good singers and dancers and they dress their act in a handsome manner. Lillian Hart, singing comedienne, has an excellent voice which she uses to good advantage. Her wardrobe also is exquisite and the young lady made an excellent impression with the large audience last evening. Restivo, master of the accordion, certainly was in great demand and was forced to respond to many encores. He is a musical genius of much ability. The great hit of the show is La Sere and La Sere, in sensational aerial and acrobatic work. It is undoubtedly the best act of its kind ever seen on a local stage. They are assisted by their dog Mippy, and he surely understands his business. The show closes with the pictures.

Manager Evans was fortunate in booking the big vaudeville show and Mr. Ross has promised him another just as good in the near future. The present bill will continue throughout the balance of the week and on next Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday will be seen "A Girl From Broadway," a big musical extravaganza.

HEBRON.

There has been no new cases of scarlet fever the past week and those affected with it are getting along nicely.

Readers of the Buckeye Breeze will miss their paper for several weeks, owing to the home of the editor, T. L. Belt, being under quarantine, little Miss Adrian is a victim of the fever.

The condition of Laura, the little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Dell Fisher of Buckeye Lake, is improving, and hopes are now entertained for her recovery. She has other complications with Scarlet fever, that are very serious.

Miss Nell Hutzell is convalescing from an attack of appendicitis.

Hanlin Burch Jr., is suffering with chickenpox.

The severe cold snap seems to make the fish bite better and local fishermen are on the banks from daylight until dark, and are catching some fine ones, which help lower the high cost of living.

Mayor White and wife, D. P. Burch and wife Mrs. James Pugh and Mrs. Francis Hand attended the funeral of their cousin, C. C. Marsh at Newark last Wednesday.

Mrs. Dr. William Shook of Canal Winchester, who attended the funeral of C. C. Marsh, visited several days with her cousins, Mrs. Belle White and Mrs. Adele Burch.

The Booklovers' contest is growing in interest here, and quite a number are working at it. As our village is under quarantine their is no entertainments but at home, which gives everybody a good chance to work for a prize.

The Priscilla club meeting has been postponed indefinitely.

Mrs. Wm. Duffill is visiting her mother Mrs. Dora Millhouse.

Mrs. Dr. J. W. Whitus of Baltimore, was the guest of Mrs. Jennie Slocum Tuesday.

The stork left a little daughter, Lucy Margaret at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Jeff Bauman, Feb. 15th.

SAVES ELDERLY PEOPLE FROM KIDNEY AND BLADDER MISERIES

Sleep Disturbing Bladder Weakness, Backache, Stiff Joints Rheumatic Pains Disappear After Few Doses are Taken.

While people along in years are naturally more subject to weak kidneys, they can avoid the tortures of backache, rheumatism, and bladder troubles by using Croxone. It is entirely different from all other remedies. It is not like anything else ever used for the purpose. Croxone makes the kidneys filter the blood and sift out all the poisonous acids and waste matter that cause these troubles. It soaks right in and cleans out the stopped-up, inactive kidneys like water does a sponge, dissolves, and drives out every particle of uric acid and other poisonous impurities that lodge in the joints and muscles and cause rheumatism. It neutralizes the uric acid so it no longer irritates the bladder, overcomes the unnecessary breakage of sleep and restores the kidneys and bladder to health and strength.

It matters not how long you have suffered, how old you are, or what else you have used. The very principle of Croxone is such that it is practically impossible to take it into the human system without results. There is nothing else on earth like it. It starts to work the minute you take it and relieves you the first time you use it, and all your misery and suffering soon disappear. You can secure an original package of Croxone at trifling cost from any first-class druggist. All druggists are authorized to personally return the purchase price if it fails in a single case.

Don't Tolerate Streaked Hair

There's No Reason Why You Should Wear Gray Hair Another Day
If It Is Unbecoming.

Nothing so robs a woman of her good looks and attractiveness as gray, streaked or faded hair. And there is no more reason or sense in tolerating unattractive hair than there is in wearing unbecoming gowns. Nearly all of the more noted beauties long ago recognized this fact, and so wear their hair not only in the style but also the color, most becoming.

The one hair stain that stands supreme is "Brownatone." It is simple and easy to use. Just comb or brush it into your hair. It can not be detected, will not rub or wash off, acts instantly, and is absolutely harmless.

"Brownatone" will give any shade desired from golden brown to black.

Your druggist sells "Brownatone" or will get it for you, and it is worth your while to insist upon having this preparation and not something else. A sample and a booklet will be mailed you upon receipt of 10 cents, and your orders will be filled direct from our laboratories if you prefer.

Two sizes—25c and $1.00.

Two shades—One for Golden or Medium Brown—the other for Dark Brown or Black.

Prepared only by the Kenton Pharmaceutical Co., 432 E. Pike St., Covington, Ky.

Sold and guaranteed in Newark by R. F. Collins, Evans' Drug Store and other leading druggists.

GREAT GAME
TONIGHT AT SWASEY HALL

Granville, Feb. 27.—The "Big Red" quintet showed exceptional form against the second team Thursday evening. The varsity scored at will, making basket after basket, as the subs were unable to hold down the score. Every member of the team is in the best condition and Ohio Wesleyan will have to play phenomenal ball if they expect to win tonight.

Preparations are being made for a large attendance. Wesleyan will be accompanied by at least one hundred rooters who will do their share to aid Coach Dixon's five to a victory. The cheering alone will be well worth the price of admission. Long, Denison's diminutive cheer leader, will be seen in action while Wesleyan will have their yell leader on the floor also.

Thiele, who has been experiencing a slump for the past two weeks, will probably return to his old position at left forward. He has been showing up well in practice this week and it is believed he will play with his customary dash when the game starts. Black, of course, will occupy the other forward. He is leading the team in scoring so far, having an average of about eight baskets. Captain Prouty will be the pivot man as usual and will have a hard man in Higgins, the lanky Methodist center. Jones and Reese will play the guards.

Coach Dixon of Wesleyan has rounded his team into the best of condition this week. There have been no accidents and everything is prepared for a hard contest between the proverbial rivals. Nothing would give more satisfaction to Ohio Wesleyan or to Denison than to triumph over the other. Back in times immemorial these two institutions have always had the desire to defeat the other in every kind of athletic contest. The main idea at the beginning of each athletic season is for Wesleyan to beat Denison or Denison to beat Wesleyan. It does not matter so much if either team is defeated by any outside college but a defeat at the hands of the opposing rival promptly sets the stamp of failure on the record for the season.

The doors of Swasey gymnasium will open promptly at 7 o'clock; previous to that time it will be impossible to gain admission to the hall.

25 YEARS AGO

(From Advocate, Feb. 27, 1889.)
Mr. J. W. Adams has recovered sufficiently from his severe illness to be on the street again.
Mr. Frank Shaub of Conrad's "All Right" grocery, will return home with his bride, formerly Miss Hare of Plainville next Thursday.
Mr. Mayhew Marple, who lives one mile north of Chatham met with a serious accident yesterday. He was upset with a load of hay and had his right leg broken.
Miss Anne Smucker is in Columbus visiting her aunt, Mrs. W. G. Wiatt.
Mr. and Mrs. D. A. Williams entertained a number of friends at their home in East Main street with a taffy pulling.
Mrs. W. H. Harrison, who has been in Baltimore, Md., for the past two or three weeks, visiting her daughter, Mrs. George E. French, returned home yesterday. She is much improved in health.
Mrs. S. L. Johnson and son Ernest left this morning for Baltimore and Washington where they will spend two weeks.

Fifty Years Ago Today, Feb. 27.

Heavy skirmish at Rocky Face, in front of Dalton, Ga., between the Federal Army of the Cumberland and Confederates of General J. E. Johnston's command. First engagement in the campaign for Atlanta.
A Herald editorial stated that crime was rampant in New York city—murder, burglary, attempted assassination, etc. News columns rarely gave over twenty lines to the most startling criminal events.

Twenty-five Years Ago Today.

DANDRUFFY HEADS BECOME HAIRLESS

Scalp Dries—Chokes Out the Hair And Prevents Its Growth.

If you want plenty of thick, beautiful, glossy, silky hair, do by all means get rid of dandruff, for it will starve your hair and ruin it if you don't.

It doesn't do much good to try to brush or wash it out. The only sure way to get rid of dandruff is to dissolve it, then you destroy it entirely. To do this, get about four ounces of ordinary liquid arvon; apply it at night when retiring; use enough to moisten the scalp and rub it in gently with the fingers tips.

By morning, most if not all, of your dandruff will be gone, and three or four more applications will completely dissolve and entirely destroy, every single sign and trace of it.

You will find, too, that all itching and digging of the scalp will stop, and your hair will be silky, fluffy, lustrous, soft and look and feel a hundred times better. You can get liquid arvon at any drug store. It is inexpensive and four ounces is all you will need, no matter how much dandruff you have. This simple remedy never fails.

CUT GLASS DISHES PRIZES IN CONTESTS

Two popular prizes in the Advocate's Booklovers' Contest are from the well known drug store of R. W. Smith. They are both of cut glass, one a $5.00 cut glass fern dish set in silver, the other a handsome $2.50 small cut glass dish. This is the famous Coudersport Cut Glass—of which there is none finer made.

The R. W. Smith Drug Store is too well and favorably known to need any introduction to the people of Newark and surrounding towns. Everything is here that could be found in the modern up-to-date drug store. The famous Penslar Remedies are sold by Mr. Smith.

See these choice pieces of cut glass in R. W. Smith's Drug Store and you'll be mighty glad if you are lucky enough to get one of these at the close of the Advocate Booklovers' Contest.

AN INGENIOUS METHOD USED IN CATCHING THIEF

(Associated Press Telegram)
Paris, Feb. 27.—An expert criminal, Julien Lemas, was caught here last night in an ingenious manner. Lemas' specialty was robbing dentists. Yesterday he called on a fashionable dentist and asked that a gold crown be fitted on a tooth. The dentist took a cast and while he went into his laboratory with the mold, Lemas pocketed a large quantity of sheet gold and walked out.
Lemas was arrested shortly afterwards. Before a magistrate he strenuously denied being the man sought, and was about to be set free when the magistrate decided to send for the cast taken by the dentist. This was found to fit Lemas' tooth exactly and the thief was held for trial.

New Plan To Be Explained, the Commercial Progress of Newark Being Its Object

It is to be presumed that every resident of Newark is interested, next to his own business and social success, in the commercial advancement, along lines of sound policy and energetic effort of his home city. In fact the former depends upon the latter to an extent that is probably not realized by a large majority, who display an apathy in taking part in any proposed plan, for the general betterment of conditions in this city, that would allow Newark to keep pace with the general idea of commercial progress, which has meant better growth and greater prosperity to many other cities, larger and smaller than ours.

Every effort toward this end, which should be paramount in each one's mind, must be accompanied by an earnest, intelligent and faithful co-operation to insure its fullest success.

It is only in this manner that efficient organization can be accomplished and the most approved ways and means are possible of adoption.

It is not a pleasant commentary, but never-the-less one that must be acknowledged as true, that most of the plans heretofore attempted have met with little success on the part of the majority, adverse criticism from many and positive opposition from a few, thus leaving the very small proportion, who did take up the entire burden of civic improvement, and commercial advancement, handicapped from the outset in the accomplishment of a work intended to benefit all.

Now a new plan has been evolved by a number of the progressive business men and citizens. Its object is to secure co-operation that is genuine. The method is unique in Newark but will commend itself without a doubt, to those who carefully consider its plausibility and ultimate possibilities. A better understanding of the relation that the individual bears to the accomplishment of an avowed purpose, will commend itself, and the end will be unqualified success, with beneficial and permanent results.

This plan will be unfolded through the columns of this paper, and by personal appeal.

Watch for it to appear the next day or two, and read carefully the proposition as it has been developed by men who have attempted to avoid any mistake of the past, to embrace every opportunity of the present, and to bring to each one a buoyant, optimistic hope for the future.

IF IT'S GOOD FOR NEWARK LET'S HAVE IT.

Granville

Granville, Feb. 27.—Dean Judson has been chosen by the faculty to represent Denison at the conference of college women which will be held in Columbus March 6 and 7. On March 9 the Denison-Cleveland alumni banquet will be held in Cleveland. There are a large number of Denison graduates in the Sixth City, and a large number are expected to attend. President Chamberlain and Dean Judson will be present and speak. Both will give addresses on the day following the banquet. President Chamberlain will talk concerning "Man's battle with the atom" at the meeting which will be held in the Baptist church. He will be held in the Baptist church. He will be held in the Baptist church. He will be held in the Baptist church.

The serve-self supper given by the local circle of The King's Daughters in the Presbyterian church Wednesday evening was attended by about 200. It was announced later that $60 had been cleared. The money will be used in promulgating worthy charity.

L. L. Bruce of the Senior class of Denison has been elected track manager for the approaching season during the first session of the new board of control. Bruce is at present serving as editor of the Denisonian, since R. R. Webber, who occupied that position left college after the first semester. Bruce will very likely receive the election to the office at the next faculty meeting.

Mr. Fred Hammond, who was formerly associated with his brother in the livery business here, moved to a farm near Alexandria Thursday, where he will reside.

AKRON STOMACH VICTIMS ARE RESTORED BY MAYR'S REMEDY

A. M. George Gets Rid of Malady After Suffering Years of Suffering.

A. M. George, who has offices at 304 Walsh Building, Akron, was for many years a sufferer from stomach ailments. He tried a good many treatments and took many medicines.

At last he found Mayr's Wonderful Stomach Remedy. The relief he sought came swiftly. He wrote:

"It is wonderful what results I received. I haven't had a symptom of the old trouble that I suffered for several years. Mr. Felver, my neighbor, who sent for some, claims that he is a different man altogether, and his wife, who has been in poor health for several years, thinks it is doing her good."

Just such letters come from all over the country. Mayr's Wonderful Stomach Remedy convinces with the first dose—no long treatment. Mr. George's experience is typical.

Mayr's Wonderful Stomach Remedy clears the digestive tract of mucoid secretions and poisonous matter. It gives quick relief from stomach, liver and bowel troubles. Many say it has saved them from dangerous operations and many are sure it has saved their lives.

Because of the remarkable success of this remedy there are many imitators, so be cautious. Be sure it's MAYR'S. Go to H. G. Marshall 218 E. Main St. drug store and ask about the wonderful results it has accomplished—or send to Geo. H. Mayr, Mfg. Chemist, 134-136 Whiting St., Chicago, Ill., for free book on stomach ailments and many grateful letters from people who have been restored. Any druggist can tell you its wonderful effects.

Already the new spring patterns are arriving at Williams & Eilber's and the attractive showing in their display window is causing almost every man to "stop, look and listen" to this splendid offer. There are so many patterns this season that it's hard to pick the winner but the

SHORT HISTORY OF ERECTION OF CITY BUILDING

In view of the fact that the old city building, corner Main and Fourth streets is soon to become the object of destruction, or scientific wrecking, to make possible a general reconstruction of a habitation for city officials, a short history of its erection will be interesting reading to many.

In looking over the council records, City Engineer C. H. Wells has found that the first mention of a city hall was at the meeting of Sept. 8, 1851, when the mayor and recorder were authorized to purchase a lot. This was over sixty-two years ago.

At a special meeting, Sept. 10, it was arranged to exchange the old market house lot for a lot 50x100 feet at the corner of West Main and Fourth streets, and to pay $1000 for a lot 100x100 feet at the alley on Fourth street, upon which the patrol house now stands.

Nov. 6, 1852, plans for a market house were adopted as drawn by George Shurtz, and bids were asked.

Bids were opened Dec. 13 for building the market house as follows:

George Shurtz$4,600
White & Jewett 4,500
H. N. Boss and J. J. Richardson 4,246

Dec. 20, it was ordered that a contract be made with Boss, Richardson and Joseph Coffman to build the market house for $4,246, same to be under roof July 1, 1853, and completed Nov. 1, 1854, under the inspection of the late Willis Robbins.

Nov. 11, 1853, the publishers of a map of Newark were authorized to engrave a view of the market house at a cost of $25.00.

Dec. 3, 1853, a bill of $149.75 was allowed for extra work on the market house, and April 1, 1854, an additional bill for $101.79 was ordered paid.

This building was finally accepted Aug. 10, 1854, and the total cost was $4,497.54.

The bell which still hangs in the tower of the city building, was bought Feb. 13, 1854. It weighed 408 pounds and cost $164.05.

This bell was used as a fire bell.

It has been suggested that this old bell be taken down carefully and means taken by the city for its preservation from the junk dealer, and it may be the council can make some such legislation.

SOWING WILD OATS

"Fighting Modern Evils That Destroy Our Homes," by Fred S. Miller. With 480 pages and 32 illustrations. The L. W. Walters Co., Chicago, $1.50.

One of the popular beliefs of the day cherished in many a home, perhaps not as universally as formerly, is that when a young man has "sowed his wild oats" he will settle down and the family will enjoy an abundant harvest of peace and content. Never was a greater fallacy and the reports of the various "vice commissions" who have been making reports both in this country and in others, furnish evidence that at last people are being roused to a sense of the physical dangers in the world which are visited upon generation after generation. In "Fighting Modern Evils" Mr. Miller, who is a Chicago author, handles this as every other subject in his valuable book, with a clearness of expression which should appeal to the most careless reader.

POLICE SEEK COMPANION OF THE DEAD MAN

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
Paris, Feb. 27.—No further light was cast today on the cause of the death yesterday of a man supposed to be Henry "Colt" of Worcester, Mass., whose body was found in a small hotel here. The dead man's companion, Eugene Dubois, a Frenchman, who had taken him to see the sights of Paris, has not been found by the police.

First Things

The first to give the name of "Old Glory" to the United States flag was probably Capt. William Driver, a Massachusetts sea captain who returned from the ocean and settled in Nashville, Tenn., shortly before the civil war. When that conflict broke out Capt. Driver displayed a flag, one which he had floated over his ship during his seafaring days, from the window of his home. The banner was fired on, and the old skipper decided that he had better lower his colors and conceal them. The Confederate troops demanded that he give up the flag, but he refused, and, respecting the spirit of the daring old man, they left him in peace. Fifty-two years ago today Gen. Nelson appeared at Nashville with a division of the Union army, and Capt. Driver offered his flag to be hoisted over the Capitol. As it fluttered in the breeze, Capt. Driver exclaimed, "There goes Old Glory!" It was his pet name for the flag, and it was soon taken up all over the northern States, and is now popularly used throughout a reunited nation.

MONEY MARKET IS LOOSENING UP SAY NEWARK BANKERS

It is evident that there is plenty of money waiting for a chance of investment in the bonds of Ohio municipalities, while it is slow to seek investment in the very best of commercial paper. Last week the Newark Board of Education sold $20,000 five per cent, school bonds which brought a premium of $24, and this week $21,000 five per cent deficiency bonds at a handsome premium of $76, were sold by the city of Chillicothe.

Newark bankers say that money has been loosening up in the last few weeks, and this would be indicated from the fact that in Chillicothe on January 19, $20,000 bonds of the same issue as that sold this week, brought a premium of only $476.

Had Serious Lung Trouble—Now Well

Sufferers from Lung Trouble are often misled in the belief that nothing will cure them. Heat, fresh air, wholesome food and regularity in habits do much in aiding to restore health, but something else is needed. Many people who have taken Eckman's Alternative have testified that it was this medicine which restored them to health. Read this:—

Walden, Ill.
"Gentlemen: Through your instrumentality I have been saved from a premature grave. On December 14, 1904, I was taken with Typhoid Pneumonia, which developed into Lung Trouble. In February, 1905, I went to Fort Worth, Texas, and later to Canon City, Colorado. After being there two weeks my physician informed me that my case was hopeless. Three weeks later I returned home, weighing 103 pounds, the doctor having given me no assurance of reaching there alive. On July 15, 1905, I began taking Eckman's wonderful remedy for Lung Trouble. Today I weigh 158 pounds, am stout and well and can do any kind of work about my grain elevator."

JOHN MCCARTHY.

It is with regret that I heard of the death of my old tried comrade, John McCarthy. Our friendship had been in existence more than 60 years and for that length of time good nature and kindness have always existed between us. I knew him well and it is difficult to find words to express my feelings of sadness at the thought of his removal. I called at his home a few months ago and spent a happy hour reviewing the old time pleasures with other old time friends, most of whom have arrived at the other shore. We spoke in sadness of the few that still live since my departure from Newark 36 years ago.

$10,000 Damage Suit.

Henry Robinson, injured while at work in the Everett stone quarry, near Black Hand, Sept. 18, last, filed suit in common pleas court, Friday, for $10,000 damage from the American Bottle company, alleging negligence of his employers was responsible for his injuries.

Robinson's petition, prepared by Attorney Phil E. Smythe, says that on the date of his injury he was ordered to assist in shifting a car loaded with crushed rock, and that he fell on the track which was slippery after a heavy rain, and the car passed over both legs, breaking one. Robinson says he sustained other injuries, all of which caused him to be confined in a hospital for six weeks and that he is not now able to work.

He thinks the company should pay his expenses, $290, and $10,000 damages.

Sues for Divorce.

Helen Wray Booher filed suit in probate court, Friday, for divorce from Frank S. Booher, to whom she was married December 15, 1910. Mrs. Booher avers that her husband was taken to the Ohio penitentiary June 13, 1913, to serve eighteen months for failure to provide for his child, Paul W. Booher, now two years old. She seeks divorce and custody of the child, and asks the court to debar Booher from any interest in real estate in Moult street, to which she holds title. Attorney J. W. Horner represents the plaintiff.

Partition Suit.

Petitions filed in Common Pleas court Friday by Attorney Roderic Jones, of Jones & Jones, and naming twenty-one defendants, seeks a court order partitioning real estate situated near Hebron, in Union township, in the rich basin territory near Buckeye Lake.

Plaintiffs are Stella Bounds Snell and Wilhelmina Bounds Chapman. They claim property rights passed down from antecedents of years back. Principal owners of the tracts involved were George, Robert, Jackson, Isaac and Samuel Bounds. About 30 acres are involved in the suits.

In an answer filed by Jones & Jones in the partition case of William Koch vs. Lindsey H. Bounds, et al., Friday, 210 acres in the same vicinity are in contest.

This is largely property which originally was a natural lake bed, and which benefitted from construction of Buckeye Lake and the Ohio canal, by making drainage possible so that it is now one of the most fertile and valuable farm settlements in the county.

Mrs. Selma Brown of Columbus was the guest of her mother in Newark on Thursday.

ROYALTY MUST BE PAID WRIGHT

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
New York, Feb. 27.—With the aviation industry of the country in his power, according to court decision, Orville E. Wright, here from Dayton, O., yesterday indicated the terms on which his competitors in manufacturing would be permitted to continue in the business. He named $1000 for each machine as royalty.

On the possibility of the Wanamaker-Curtiss proposed trans-Atlantic flight, Mr. Wright is not so optimistic as many of his contemporaries, he does not believe that the aeroplane has advanced to the point that would enable it to carry the fuel needed to cross the ocean in a single flight.

"If it is done, they must alight on the way to renew the fuel supply," was his comment.

SANTA FE, NEW MEXICO.
I approach the mention of the entertainment given by the William's Singers on Saturday night with a feeling of diffidence. I am fearful of using too many superlatives. With the exception of the David Bispham musical treat, Santa Fe has had nothing in this line that can compare, in any degree, with this entertainment in artistic finish and genuine enjoyment. The jubilee songs have become classics in our American world of music and they hold a place that no other songs can reach. Their popularity never has waned and their hold on the people has never weakened. The "Williams' Singers" certainly made friends here, and will be welcomed any time in the future that they care to come—Santa Fe New Mexican.

How a Secret Was Obtained

By MARTHA MONROE

Two men met on the custom house wharf in Naples, where baggage was being transferred from a recently arrived ocean steamer.

"Good morning, Vincenzo," said one. "What are you doing here?"

Vincenzo Fabroni gave the other a look enjoining silence and led the way to a place where they would not be observed.

"Well, Giuseppe, I am trying to make an honest living carrying baggage. The truth is I am tired of a criminal life and wish to reform."

"But you have nothing to fear. Being a member of the Camorra, you are always sure of protection whatever you do."

"That may be, but I am not naturally a villain. I was made so by circumstances."

"Well, Vincenzo, I wish your success in your efforts to carry rich men's trunks for an occasional lira that you may make by doing so. As for me, I wish I had your opportunity in a membership of the Camorra."

"Why don't you join the society?"

"It won't have me. I have secret enemies among the members who keep me out. Nevertheless I have been reasonably successful without the Camorra's assistance. I have just steered an American tourist into the hands of bandits and shared in the ransom."

"I wish you would lend me some of it. I would like to set up a winery shop where to make a living."

"How much do you need?"

"Five hundred lire would start me."

Giuseppe Zarella thought a few minutes, then said: "I need something you possess. You need something I possess. Suppose we make a trade. You wish money to set up in business. I wish to be a member of the Camorra. I will give you all you require for your purpose. You give me a secret that will enable me to gain admission into the society."

"What secret?"

"Who murdered Di Guido?"

Vincenzo winced. "What good would it do you to know that?" he asked.

"It would open to me the doors of the Camorra. The police are straining every nerve to discover who committed that crime. Let me once intimate that I am in the secret and the Camorra will gladly admit me."

After some more talk Vincenzo said that he would think the matter over and would give his friend an answer on the steps of the sea wall at 9 o'clock the next evening. When they came together again Vincenzo said:

"Giuseppe, the risk I would run in giving you the information you wish—the risk of my life—is worth much more than 500 lire."

"How much is it worth?"

Giuseppe looked at the other, wondering how high a price he could put on his secret. Finally he said, "You give me 3,000 lire?"

"Yes, I will give you that. An admission to the Camorra would be worth that to me."

"Swear that you will divulge the secret to no one."

"How could I use it without divulging it?"

"I see. Swear that you will tell no one that I gave it to you."

"I swear to that."

"When will you make the trade?"

"Now. I came provided with the money."

Giuseppe took a roll of bills from his pocket, counted out 3,000 lire and put the rest back. With the money in his palm he clasped Vincenzo's hand. Vincenzo whispered the secret in his ear, the hands were uncupped, and the bills remained in Vincenzo's.

"Now, Vincenzo," said his friend, "I will tell you what to do. Report to the Camorra that you have made this money by robbery and expect an arrest. Warning them to be ready to clear you. That will account for your having such an amount, and they need not suspect that I got my secret from you."

"That I will surely do."

A few days later Vincenzo reported that he had laid out an Englishman on the heights back of the city and taken considerable money from him. He was promised that should he be arrested and tried the members of the Camorra would be present at the trial and intimate by signs to the judge that if Vincenzo were convicted he (the judge) would be assassinated.

Within a week a man was arrested for the Di Guido murder. He remained in jail some time while the government was working up a case against him and taking steps for his conviction despite the threats of the Camorra. Meanwhile Vincenzo Fabroni opened his winery shop and was making for him a good living. One day a member of the national police walked by his shop several times and, when he saw it was empty, walked in. Fabroni stood looking at him with an enigmatic mingled with horror.

"Giuseppe!" he exclaimed, or rather moaned.

"Don't be afraid," said the carabinieri. "You are safe so far as the government is concerned. Serve me a liter of wine, and I will tell you something."

Vincenzo pulled himself together, brought the wine, and Giuseppe told him that he had bought his secret not to secure a membership in the Camorra, but to discover the murderer of Di Guido.

TRAFFIC HELD UP BY GROUND HOG ON NEW YORK CENTRAL

(Associated Press Telegram) Tarryton, N. Y., Feb. 27.—The New York Central railroad was tied up by a ground hog yesterday. The animal bored its way in the conduit at Main street crossing, short-circuiting all signal wires. The Wilsey street semaphore board flopped up and down, alternating between "danger" and "clear." Then it was noticed that all the signals were doing a dance.

The gateman at the crossing looked into the conduit and saw the ground hog. Laborers were summoned and a fire was started and the animal was smoked out.

The towerman at the south of the station seeing smoke thought the crossing was on fire and stopped all northbound trains, including fast western expresses. After a while the groundhog capitulated and traffic was resumed.

VALUE OF RHEUMA FROM THE COURT

Judge Barhorst Was Relieved of Rheumatism After Doctors Failed.

If you have tried many other remedies and doctors' treatments for Rheumatism and found they failed, do not be skeptical about trying RHEUMA. Read the testimony of Judge John Barhorst of Port Laramie, O.: "After treatment by three doctors without result, I have been cured of a very bad case of Rheumatism by using two bottles of RHEUMA. It is now two years since I used the remedy, and I am still as well as ever. Previously, I was a cripple, walking with crutches."

Such testimony should be convincing. 50 cents of Evans' Drug Store, guaranteed.

FINE RECORD MADE BY PROSECUTOR OF LICKING COUNTY

The office of Prosecuting Attorney for a county the size of Licking, is one of great importance to the community in general and the taxpayers in particular. Its duties are more manifold than is ordinarily conceived by the general public, and in so far as he is a conscientious man and a capable lawyer, is real success assured.

His first duty is to get at facts, his final triumph is to bring out these facts in a correlated, convincing form. The success of a prosecutor is not necessarily commensurate with the number of convictions for crime that he secures. This is important just insofar as his careful investigations, keen perception and tireless industry makes him a "terror to evil doers," who come to realize that crime can not be committed with impunity. Too often the office is considered by the general public, more as one to give opportunity for a display of brilliant rhetoric, the picturesque juggling of legal technicalities, and a final burst of forensic eloquence, that is supposed to carry the jury to a conviction accompanied by congratulation of the prosecutor on his "victory," as if it were wholly a personal matter in which he alone was interested.

J. HOWARD JONES
Prosecuting Attorney

The prosecutor is ex-officio the legal adviser to county officers, township trustees, treasurers, school boards and other public servants, and for this he needs a disposition congenial to his work complemented by an equipment of varied legal attainments.

In J. Howard Jones Licking county has been fortunate. He has measured up as a safe advisor, a successful trial lawyer and one who has an eye always upon the interests of the taxpayers.

In his term he has seemed to possess an intuition of the innocence or guilt of a person charged with a felony; that has resulted in obtaining more pleas of guilty, than has been usual. This has done away with trials involving heavy court costs and saving much valuable time.

In the number of cases that have been tried, the present prosecutor has lost but two. It is indeed a splendid record.

FEED THE BIRDS.

Let us not forget during this winter weather, when the ground is covered with snow, that the few species of non-migrating birds in this zone, have a precarious existence. It is almost impossible for them to obtain an adequate food supply unless it be furnished them by their human friends.

Besides keeping the birds alive it quickens a sympathy for the lower orders of creation, which cannot but broaden, and evolve into a helpful consideration of the human species. By sending the little girl or boy to the door after each meal to scatter crumbs for our little feathered friends we are inculcating a habit which in itself is humane and may be the foundation for character forming thoughts that go far toward developing what we all recognize as best in man and woman.

COUNCIL DISCUSSES GAS QUESTION; HELD CAUCUS THURSDAY

Members of the city council held an informal meeting Thursday night in the office of the clerk in the Trust Building, when a number of matters which will be brought up at next Monday night's meeting were discussed.

The gas situation was one of the questions discussed at length and while the sentiment seemed to be that something should be done, no definite line of action was outlined as far as could be learned. The law committee, which had in its hands the propositions of the gas company submitted at the last regular meeting, obtained data from a large number of Ohio cities which indicate that the average price of gas was a fraction less than 30 cents. In all probability some recommendation will be made to council in the form of a report.

The fire department question which caused considerable discussion at the last meeting of council, was also taken up. When council last considered the matter, it passed an ordinance abolishing the position of one of the captains but before adjournment this action was reconsidered and the measure was sent back to the safety committee for further recommendation.

While council seemed inclined to take some action on Mayor Bigbee's recommendation which urged that the office of assistant chief be abolished, Thursday night's discussion did not indicate what course might be pursued.

In all probabilities council will repeat an ordinance passed about two years ago fixing a registration fee of $1 for motorcycles. The new state law now provides that all motorcycles shall carry a state tag, making the local registration unnecessary. The safety department has been refunding the registration fee of $1.00 to those who have already taken out tags here this year.

CONSUL LETCHER

had ordered Benton's execution without a court martial. Consul Edwards at Juarez today reported that he saw the American, Gustav Bauch, in the Juarez jail on Feb. 18 and that, according to authorities in the border city, Bauch was afterwards removed to Chihuahua, with other Americans, names not given.

At the navy department today it was said there was no significance in the holding of the transport Hancock and her 400 marines at New Orleans.

Up to the time Secretary Bryan left the state department for the cabinet meeting nothing had been reported from Consul Garrett at Nuevo Laredo, concerning the latest developments in that official's inquiry into the hanging of the Texas rancher, Clemente Vergara at Hidalgo, Mex.

PREPARING FOR DEPARTURE TO CHIHUAHUA

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM) El Paso, Tex., Feb. 27.—George C. Carothers, special agent of the department at Washington today reported that he had postponed his departure for Chihuahua and while he was silent as to his reasons, it was assumed that the arrival here of the British emissary, Charles Arthur Perceval to participate in the Benton investigation and the receipt by Carothers of a dispatch from Mexico accounted for the delay.

The presence of Perceval who came here from Galveston where he is British consul was believed to mark the beginning of important developments in the Benton case.

Official news of the killing of Benton, a British subject was made public just a week ago today.

General Hugh L. Scott, Carothers and Perceval maintained complete reserve as to their plans. Perceval, who received a bulky package which he said contained his instructions, expected to be guided by General Scott in his official actions. It was believed, however, that when the commission to examine Benton's body departs for Chihuahua where General Villa says it is buried the British official would accompany the investigators.

Meanwhile anxiety over the disappearance of Gustav Bauch continued although his case apparently was not involved in the Benton investigation. Rebels of Juarez and Chihuahua both denied that they have him and believe in the report that the German-American was shot as a spy last Friday was still general of this side of the Rio Grande. Friends of Clemente Vergara, the American who was hanged recently by Mexican federalists were aroused today by the reports made by American Consul Garrett and Vergara's brother-in-law, S. J. Hill, who yesterday visited the scene of the rancher's execution near Hidalgo, Mexico.

Vergara's friends assert that they will press for the fixing of responsibility for the hanging and for punishment of the American's executioners.

The dual investigation into Vergara's death was expected to assume definite outline today. The federal investigation began several days ago while the state's inquiry was ordered only yesterday by Governor Colquhoun who indicated he might take decisive steps toward punishing Vergara's slayers if they are discovered. An attempt will be made to have Vergara's body brought here for burial.

Much interest was manifested here today in the mission of Charles Perceval, British consul at Galveston, Texas, who arrived here last night to assist in the investigation of the death of William S. Benton.

Mr. Perceval declined to discuss his mission but at his hotel, the British representative received a package of instructions from his government. Mr. Carothers will make the arrangements for the examination of Benton's body. He will make the trip on a railroad motor driven vehicle.

Driven From City As Bandit Now at Head of Affairs

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM) Chihuahua, Mex., Feb. 27.—As an explanation of his continued delay in attacking the federal army south of here, close advisers of General Francisco Villa today opined that the rebel leader was quite content with his present supreme authority and that he would not rush southward until necessity seems to require it. Practically all of Villa's army is scattered south along the railroad to within a few miles of Torreon and its positions of being on the verge of attacking the federalists, has been unchanged for weeks.

Only feeble indications of Villa's intention to move at the head of his troops have appeared. Meanwhile reports have been that the federal army has been strengthening its defenses and fortifying the railroads south and east. Belief has been growing that the federalists under General Valasco would assume the offensive and send troops north to check the rebels.

Impartial military observers agreed today that the rebels lost ground by their delay. Waited upon by representatives of foreign governments and surrounded by Duval pomp of soldiers and civilians General Villa, after having risen from the position of a bandit within a few months, has been wielding the powers of a dictator. No effort has been made to conceal his dictatorship and it has been said his delay in moving southward was actuated by desire to extend his power as head of the government.

Friends of General Villa recalled that before his recent victories he said that to capture and hold this state capital after driving off his enemies, was the height of his ambition. It was from this city that Villa was driven out many years ago as a bandit and from here Diaz soldiers were vainly sent to capture him.

Little credence was given here to often repeated reports that General Carranza intended soon to travel from Sonora to assume control of the government in Chihuahua. General Villa has insistently referred to Carranza as the first chief of the revolution but it has been thought Carranza would delay his arrival in Chihuahua if he comes, until Villa has moved southward.

Villa has surrounded himself by men who accept his word as law. It has been openly stated that for Mexicans to express opinions adverse to Villa, warrants execution, and not to obey orders should be punished by imprisonment. A Mexican conductor was put in prison because he was late with a grain ordered by Villa.

Ex-President Taft Advocates Passage Of Clayton Measure

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM) Washington, Feb. 27.—Former President Taft appeared today before the house judiciary committee in the capacity of president of the American Association, and with several other members of the association, advocated passage of the Clayton bill authorizing the supreme court to prescribe forms and rules of procedure for federal courts on the common law side.

"All men delight in the exercise of patronage," said Mr. Taft. "Of course," he added, with a smile, "on this matter I am speaking to the Republicans on your committee, not the Democrats. The rally brought a ripple of laughter from the committee. One of the troubles with life appointments for judges, Mr. Taft said, was that the temptation was strong to build up about themselves "judicial families." That temptation could be removed by congress, Mr. Taft insisted, and the courts as they are now constituted could be vindicated without resort to the recall which he believed harmful. He thought appointments of receivers by federal judges should be made from a list furnished by the interstate commerce commission.

Mr. Taft added that at some later date it probably would be advisable to provide for the examination of the rules of procedure by a commission with a view to harmonizing and administering the two sides of federal court work. Mr. Taft said he wished to call the committee's attention to one fact. "You can safely consider this bill," said he, since it has the approval of the Progressive party and of Senator Root and myself. I want the committee to get that fact; that where two so widely divergent views agree upon a thing, it is probably a thing to be desired."

SEARCHING FOR MEN WHO BEAT UP JOHN PETKOVIC (ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM) Cleveland, Feb. 27.—Police today began a search for two men charged with beating John Petkovic, of Akron, O., gouging out one eye and seriously injuring him that he has been in a hospital more than two months. Today he was able to leave the hospital only long enough to swear to an affidavit charging two "John Does" with assault and robbery.

Petkovic told police prosecutors that on the night of Dec. 5, he was inveigled into leaving a Cleveland-Akron car just before it reached the city limits by two men who had engaged him in conversation on the trip from Akron.

He said the men dragged him into a clump of bushes, beat him and took $107 from him. He was found six hours later. One eye was torn from its socket.

ANNIVERSARY OF THE DEATH OF GEN. C. R. WOODS

Older residents of Newark will remember the death in this city, just twenty-nine years ago Thursday of General Charles R. Woods, which occurred at his home in Granville street. The deceased was one of the most prominent citizens ever calling Newark his home, and his death was announced by thousands outside of the city.

General Woods was a graduate of West Point in the class of 1852 and at the outbreak of the civil war was a captain in the regular army. He served with great distinction throughout the war and was brevetted several grades for gallantry and meritorious services, holding the rank of major general at the close of the conflict, leaving the military service in 1867. He was recognized as one of the leading officers in the union army and was idolized by the soldiers who served under him.

His death was very sudden being found dead in bed by his family. The funeral was one of the largest ever held in Newark, and took place Sunday March 1, in a pouring rain, officers from the Columbus barracks military and civic orders marching to Cedar Hill cemetery where the body was laid to rest.

NEWSPAPER MEN FINED BY JUDGE FOR CONTEMPT

New York, Feb. 27.—George Burdick, city editor, and William Curtin, shinnews reporter, for the New York Tribune, were adjudged in contempt by Federal Judge Hand today for having refused recently to answer questions concerning their source of information relative to smuggling cases, accounts of which their paper printed. Each was fined $500, but the court said the defendants would have opportunity to purge themselves should they desire to answer the questions before another grand jury.
